

- Effluent culture bottles are continuously monitored for microbial growth.
- Slow growing organisms may need prolonged incubation.
- Effluent specimens suggestive of peritonitis based on elevated WBC count in FCC are incubated 14 days.
- Additional studies can take 1 to 2 weeks.